

JUN MIYATA

JULY 1, 1952.—Committed to the Committee of the Whole House and ordered to be printed

Mr. WALTER, from the Committee on the Judiciary, submitted the following

REPORT

[To accompany S. 3132]

The Committee on the Judiciary, to whom was referred the bill (S. 3132) for the relief of Jun Miyata, having considered the same, report favorably thereon without amendment and recommend that the bill do pass.

PURPOSE OF THE BILL

The purpose of the bill is to grant a waiver of the racial barrier to admission into the United States in behalf of the Japanese stepchild of a United States citizen. The child would be considered to be a nonquota immigrant which is the status normally enjoyed by the alien minor children of citizens of the United States.

GENERAL INFORMATION

The beneficiary of the bill is a 2½-year-old child of the Japanese wife of Sgt. Loyd Greenfield, a United States citizen. The mother of the child has been admitted to the United States as the wife of an American citizen serviceman under the provisions of Public Law 6 of the Eighty-second Congress.

Senator Robert S. Kerr, the author of the bill, has submitted additional information in support of the bill, among which are the following letters:

UNITED STATES SENATE,
May 8, 1952.

Senator PAT McCARRAN,
Senate Office Building, Washington, D. C.

DEAR SENATOR McCARRAN: Attached hereto are exhibits and supporting evidence in connection with S. 3132 which I introduced yesterday, April 7.

I would appreciate it if you will have the attachments reviewed and advise me if it will be necessary to obtain additional evidence in support of my bill.

From an examination of the attached evidence, this presents the situation of an American soldier who fell in love with a Japanese girl, married her and brought her to the United States. His wife is the mother of a 2½-year-old child. The father of the child was an American soldier. Sergeant Greenfield desires to have the child brought to the United States. He has made arrangements with an American soldier in Tokyo, who will be returning upon completion of his tour, to bring the child to the States with him.

As is pointed out by Sergeant Greenfield, this is not an unusual circumstance in Japan at this time. I trust that early and favorable consideration of this bill may be had so that the soldier now in Japan may bring the child with him upon completion of his tour of duty.

Sincerely yours,

ROB'T S. KERR.

FORT MYER, Va., April 24, 1952.

HON. ROBERT S. KERR,

These regulations provide that all minor children must be accompanied by an adult person. My stepson will be accompanied by one Corp. Mr. Miyata will also arrange for physical examination, necessary affidavits and other matters that I cannot personally perform pursuant to actual application for issuance and issuance of nonquota immigration visa at the American Consular Office, Norincho, Yurakucho, Tokyo, Japan.
